

Rev. Marvin Havard

Salem Lutheran Church
Houston, TX

Pastor Marvin Havard is the pastor at Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church in the Meyerland/Westbury area of Houston. Pastor Marvin is a graduate of Delta State University and Wartburg Theological Seminary. Salem is his third call as a pastor, the first in northern Minnesota and the second in Plano, Texas. Music is a central piece of Marvin's life which is often expressed through participation in Houston Bronze Ensemble, a community handbell choir, and through service as a musician with the Global Musician Educators of the ELCA. He enjoys reading science fiction and fantasy novels, trying out many of the different cuisines offered in Houston, and watching movies with his husband, Tony Martinez, a musician with Houston Grand Opera and House of Prayer Lutheran Church.

Texas-Louisiana Gulf Coast Synod
Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.