

Rev. Karin Liebster

Christ the King Lutheran Church
Houston, TX

Karin Liebster is Associate Pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church in Houston, Texas. Her areas of work include faith formation and worship planning. Pastor Karin is a graduate of the University of Heidelberg after studies at several universities in Germany, also at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. She served a congregation in Germany and was called to a United Church of Christ congregation in Woburn, MA before joining the roster of the ELCA. Her joys in ministry are caring conversations, liturgical leadership including empowering others to be leaders, teaching and preaching. She loves walking, swimming, reading the newspaper, and cooking. She is married to Matthias Henze, a biblical scholar at Rice University. They have three young-adult children.
